Aragon Construction Achieves NACC Credential

Aragon Construction of Montclair, California, has earned North American Contractor Certification (NACC), becoming the 45th contractor in North America and 10th in California to achieve the credential.

NACC is an ANSI-accredited, award-winning certification that empowers architectural glass and metal contractors to adopt standard best practices not only for glazing quality and construction safety but also for business operations. By attaining NACC, ARAGON demonstrated its commitment to processes and procedures that consistently deliver high quality project results.
