

SCGMA Case Study

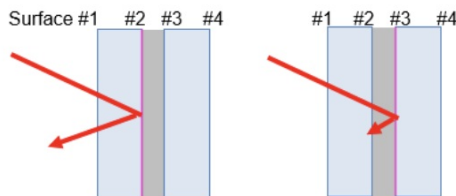

Pacific Visions at the Aquarium of the Pacific

Engineered glazing systems offering visual transparency between interior and exterior spaces are typical installations of our SCGMA members, but as facades have evolved, so has the scope of work for these firms. In this SCGMA Case Study we look at a unique rainscreen wall at the new Pacific Visions Wing of the Aquarium of the Pacific in Long Beach, California.

SCGMA Technical Bulletin

Laminated Glass and Low E Coatings

Occasionally, risk elements present themselves in the commercial glazing business, and we believe that it is helpful to address them. Rejection of installed laminated Low E glazing due to subtle color shifts has been an issue and is the subject of this technical bulletin.

Association News

Legislative Alert – AB 1400 and ACA 11

SCGMA officially take an opposing stance to AB 1400 and ACA 11.

AB 1400 is a terrible bill, although it is toothless without Assembly Constitutional Amendment 11 (ACA 11) which puts in place the taxes to fund the program. ACA 11 would increase CA taxes nearly $163 billion per year – predominantly on businesses – to fund the single-payer healthcare system laid out in AB 1400.
