

GLAZING BOOT CAMP FT. USC

Friday, March 27

7 AM - 12 PM

7020 Slauson Ave, Commerce, CA 90040

Our annual Glazing Boot Camp returns in 2026 at the Apprenticeship Training Facility in Commerce. This immersive, hands-on session brings attendees together to work alongside our apprentices in building storefront and curtainwall mockups while exploring essential glazing installation techniques. Attendees will also experience a live water testing demonstration, showcasing how glazing systems are tested to ensure performance and long-term durability.

This year, USC Architecture students will join our young professionals for a collaborative learning experience, providing an opportunity to network with future architects and exchange knowledge within the industry.
